CORVANTA INDUSTRIES FY2025 ANNUAL FINANCIAL SUMMARY

This summary covers Corvanta Industries' fiscal year 2025, which ended on December 31, 2025. All figures are in US dollars and are unaudited.

FINANCIAL HIGHLIGHTS

Total revenue for FY2025 was $4.82 billion, an increase of 11.3 percent from $4.33 billion in FY2024. Gross margin improved to 58.4 percent, compared with 56.1 percent in the prior year.

Operating income was $912 million, representing an operating margin of 18.9 percent. Net income was $684 million and diluted earnings per share were $3.42.

Revenue growth was driven primarily by expansion of the Cloud Services segment and higher renewal rates among enterprise customers.

SEGMENT AND REGIONAL PERFORMANCE

Cloud Services revenue was $2.31 billion, an increase of 19.7 percent year over year. Cloud Services is now the largest segment and accounts for 48 percent of total revenue.

Enterprise Software revenue was $1.64 billion, an increase of 6.2 percent. Professional Services revenue was $0.87 billion, an increase of 1.1 percent.

By geography, North America contributed 61 percent of revenue, EMEA contributed 27 percent and APAC contributed 12 percent.

The number of customers with more than $1 million in annual recurring revenue grew to 412 at the end of FY2025.

CASH FLOW AND CAPITAL ALLOCATION

Operating cash flow was $1.21 billion and free cash flow was $968 million. Capital expenditures were $242 million, focused on data center capacity.

Cash and cash equivalents were $2.06 billion at year end, and total debt was $1.15 billion.

During FY2025 Corvanta repurchased $400 million of its common stock. The Board declared a quarterly dividend of $0.28 per share.

FY2026 OUTLOOK

For FY2026 Corvanta expects total revenue between $5.25 billion and $5.35 billion. The company expects an operating margin between 19.5 percent and 20.5 percent.

Key risks to the outlook include foreign exchange volatility, increased competition from AI-native software vendors and slower enterprise IT spending.
